Reflections of Ragsdale

What does one think of on graduation night? Is one happy to "get out"? or is one's face tear-stained with the thoughts of never seeing again some of these fellow classmates all clad in blue gowns? No one can spend four years in a school without coming under the influence of its spell. At the end of this school year, the memories of four years-happy and sad, good and bad-return in retrospect. These thoughts are the Reflections of Ragsdale.

For seniors this volume is the last in a series of four that will be perused year after year as reminders of happy, carefree, sometimes difficult high school days.

But for all-freshmen, sophomores, juniors, seniors- this yearbook is

REFLECTIONS OF RAGSDALE for 1965-1966

The back entrance is always a busy place as students congregate before classes.

Ann Wyrick, Eddie Stafford, Kathy Scearce and Benny Blakewood talk over Student Council plans with Mr. Madison.

This year, 1965-1966, has been a great year for Ragsdale High School-a year of abundant school spirit-a year when the entire student body has worked together in harmony. All four classes enthusiastically supported the football, basketball, and other athletic teams, co-operated to make Homecoming a gala event, attended the school social functions, and labored to make Fun Night really fun. It is the hope of the Echo staff that this all-consuming spirit which is really Ragsdale will overflow from 1966 into 1967 and into infinity.

Between 11:20 and 1:05 the cafeteria is a scene of bustling activity.

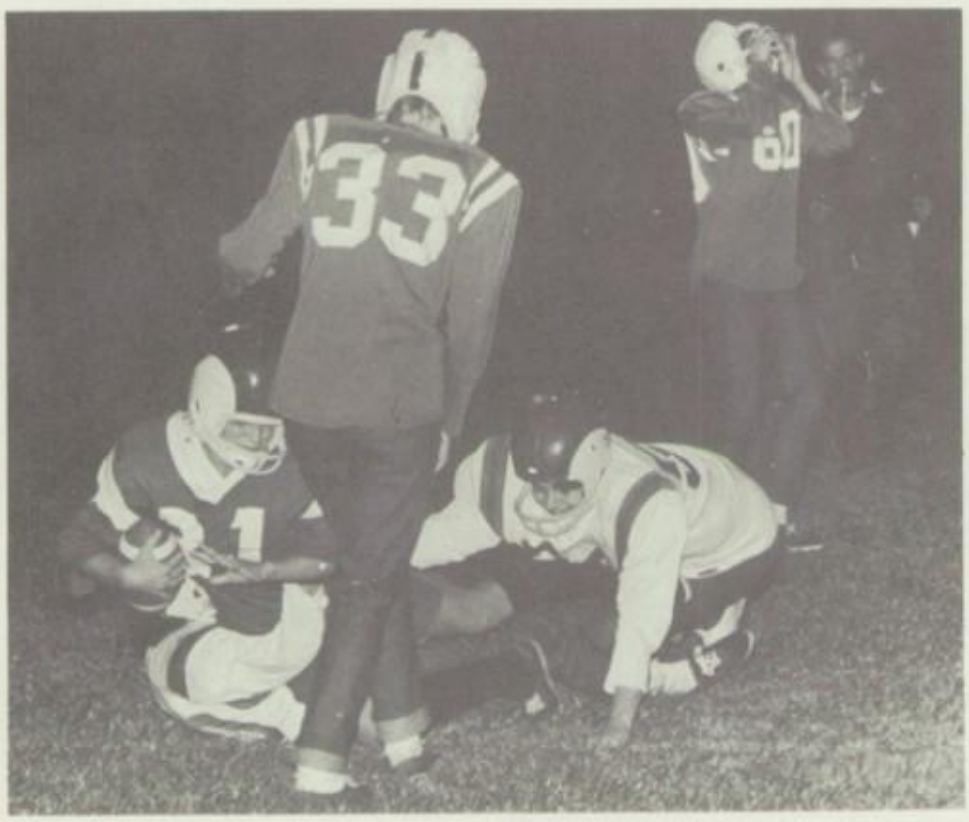
College and Capers Reflect

Seniors are busy taking the manual dexterity portion of the G.A.T.B.

Interested students listen to Mr. Creech of U.N.C.-G. at the College Night program.

Kenneth Brown, Jean Myers, Sandra Fraley, and Judy Fouty find the college catalogs helpful in their selection of a college.

A Memorable Year



Mighty Martha is stopped for no gain by Choochoo Charlie as other team members pile on.

Captains Bangle and Colson crown Queen David at the half-time ceremonies of the Powder Puff football game.

The National Forensic League's float depicting a debate between Central Davidson's Spartans and the Ragsdale Tigers won first place in the Homecoming parade.

The Telephone Hour skit served as a grand finale of Fun Night.

Jimmy Howell, Jean Myers, Sherry Moore and Esker Stanley try out for parts in the Senior Play
THE BOY WHO CHANGED THE WORLD.

The soldiers in Viet Nam had a merrier Christmas thanks to Christmas cards sent by Karen Price, Cheryl Simmons, Georgianna Brinson, Chip Fortney and many other members of the student body.

Sara Eller, Sherry Moore, and David Hunt successfully represented Ragsdale for three sessions on the Klassroom Kwiz over Station WGHP.

Ford Thornton, Brenda Routh, and Susan Butchart find the library and excellent place for doing reference work.

Jane Smith, Anne Wyrick, Ronnie Wyrick, Molly Madison and Tance Laughridge collect gifts and toys for needy children.

Dr. Hood entertains the student body with a bagpipe concert.

English students work diligently on their mid-term exams.

Joey Taro, Jimmy Modlin, and Pete McBride were the outstanding scorers on the basketball team.

Dedication

Energy is a distinctive characteristic of the person to whom this year's ECHO is dedicated. Arriving at Ragsdale only three years ago, this teacher has made her influence felt throughout the whole of Ragsdale High School. She has unceasingly challenged her students to attain higher goals, but she has never demanded more than she, herself, gives. Liberal minded, she encourages students to think for themselves and to express freely their original ideas. Teaching classes in U. S. History, Democracy in Action, and Speech and Dramatics, she also finds time in her busy schedule for sponsoring the National Forensic League and the Debating Club and for coaching the senior play.

The Senior Class is proud and honored to dedicate the 1965-1966 ECHO to one who has succeeded better than she realizes in bringing out the best in us--Mrs. Charlotte Hallberg.

The Administration

The Superintendent of Guilford County Schools is the chief administrator for the thirty-two schools in the county. Mr. E. P. Pearce, Jr., has done his job well for many years. He received his B.S. degree from Wake Forest in 1938 and obtained his M.A. degree from UNC-CH in 1942.

Jamestown District School Board

Mr. Hoyle Morgan, Mr. W. A. Groome, Mrs. T. C. Ragsdale, Secretary; Mr. E. B. Stafford, Chairman; Mr. J. C. Kimrey.

The Administration

Mr. T. G. Madison
Principal

Mr. T. G. Madison received his A.B. degree from High Point College and his M.A. from U.N.C.-C.H. He has been principal of Ragsdale High School since 1959. The students here at Ragsdale look up to him for guidance, advice, and support, which he is always ready to give.

Our assistant principal and also social studies teacher, Mr. Ralph Moran, received his A.B. from High Point College. He has been our assistant principal for three years during which time he has been efficient in his job and has won the respect and admiration of students and faculty alike.

Mr. Ralph Moran
Assistant Principal

Mrs. Audrey Wrike
Secretary

Mrs. Audrey Wrike, the school secretary, is an alumna of Jamestown High School and has been the secretary of the school since 1950. She cheerfully does the innumerable jobs that fall upon the office every day.

English Students Concentrate

English is, of course, one of the most important subjects taught at Ragsdale since a student must have four units to graduate.

As freshmen students review the fundamentals of grammar which they will continue to use throughout their four years of high school, they find themselves writing themes and studying the literature of many different authors. During the sophomore year, much study and emphasis is put on SILAS MARNER along with a variety of other literature. Juniors learn for the first time the mechanics of writing term papers and study carefully the literature of outstanding American authors. The Seniors find much variety in their English classes. There are ballads and poetry to write, more research to be done for more term papers, and MACBETH to be read and studied.

Early in their freshman year all English classes learn to use and to appreciate the varied facilities of the library.

As an elective, juniors and seniors may take a course in speech and dramatics where they study all phases of drama and the most efficient methods of presenting their ideas orally to others.

Foreign Languages Give an

Latin students busily work on their next day's assignment

Whether it is Latin or French that Ragsdalian students are trying to master, it often seems as if all of it is Greek. But through diligent study, much is gained from these language courses by the end of the year.

From the study of Latin much knowledge is to be gained other than that of the conjugation of verbs and declensions of nouns. Students study ancient Roman and Greek history and learn roots for many of our English words.

In both the lab and the classroom, students learn the customs, characteristics, and heritage of the French people in addition to the knowledge of their language.

Miss Estelle Brown

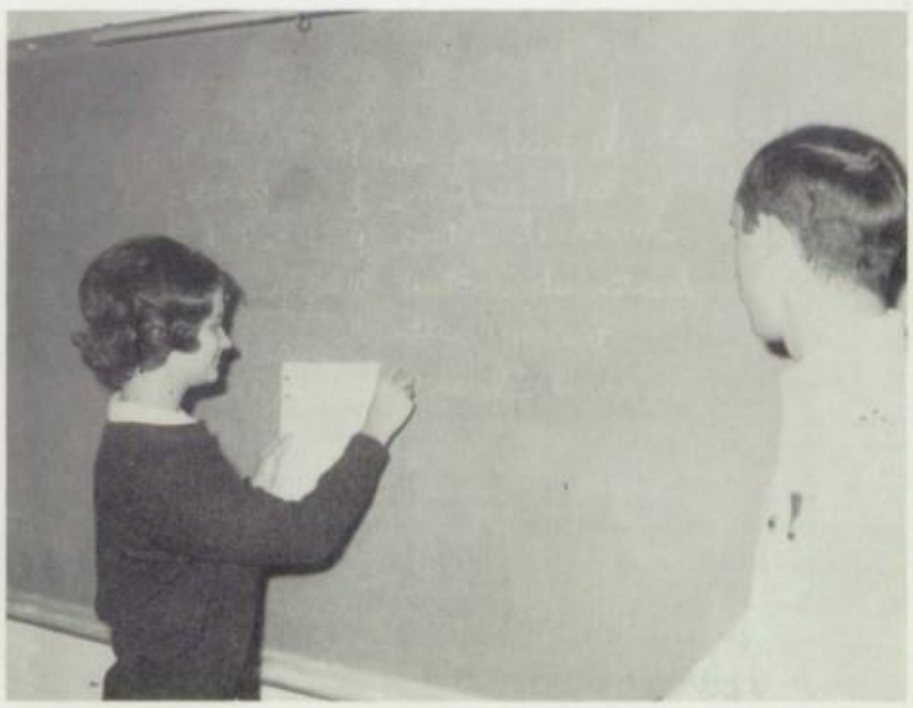
Mrs. Ruth Hornaday

Mr. Charles Wilson

Insight to Other Cultures

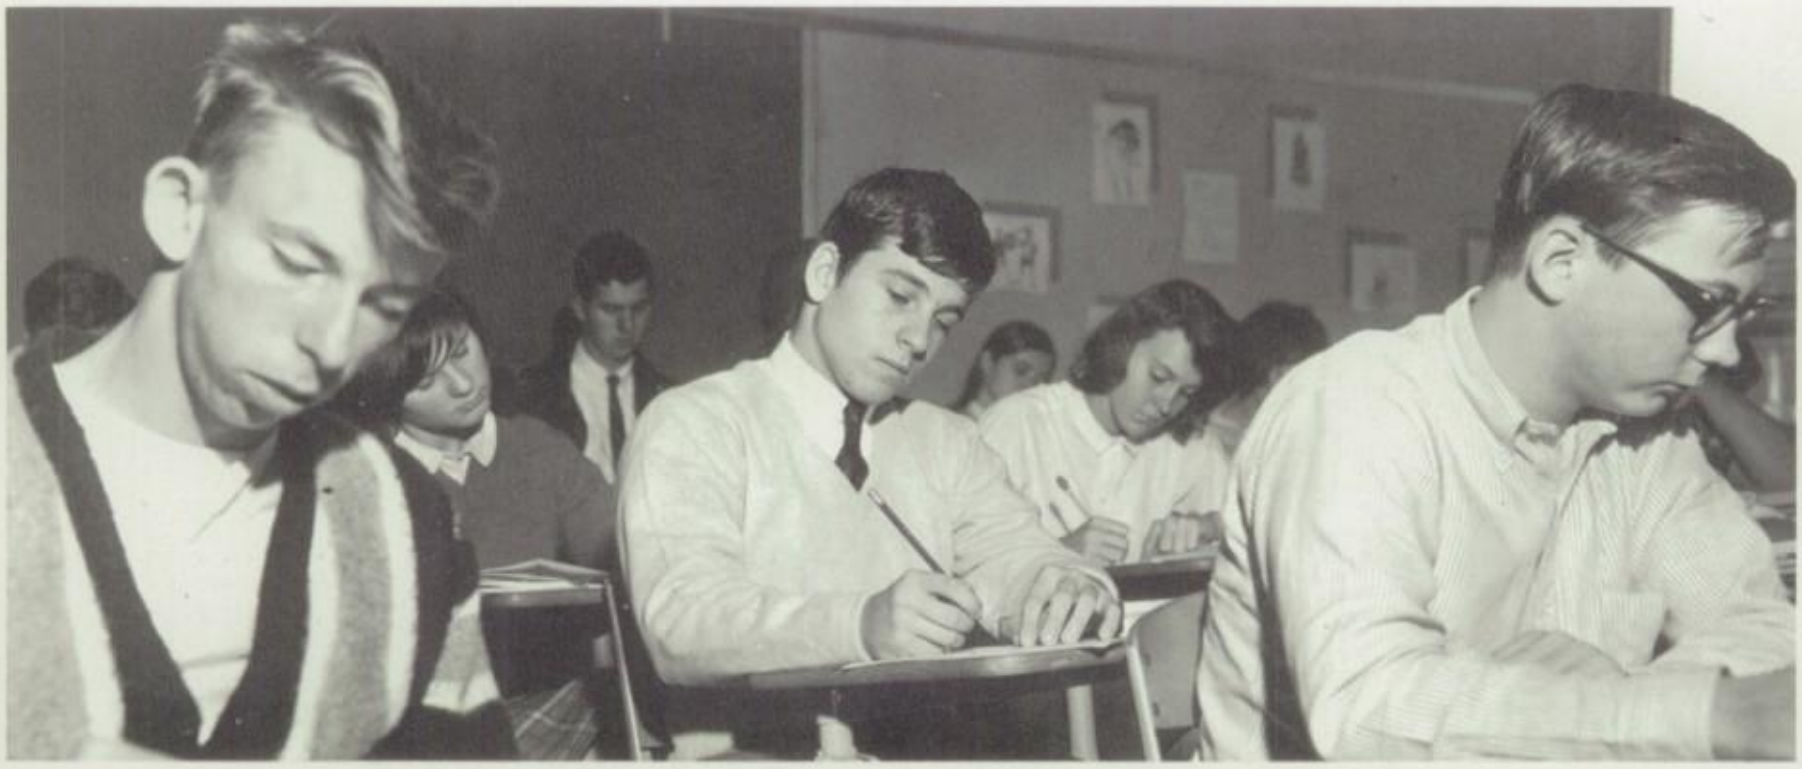
The language lab helps students with their comprehension and pronunciation of French.

Debbie Swaim and Bobby Petree familiarize themselves with a map of France.



Tance Laughridge writes a sentence on the board in French while Rick Creasman looks on.

Math Challenges



Many students find consumer math a practical and a helpful course.

Students at Ragsdale may choose from a variety of math courses ranging from general math to trigonometry. They are required to complete two courses in mathematics before they can graduate.

Two years of algebra, plane geometry, college algebra, and trigonometry are offered for those students preparing to go to college.

Those who are entering the field of business will find business math very helpful.

Courses in general and consumer math are offered to the students who are pursuing a general course.

Mr. Gordon assists Frankie Luffman with a problem in general math.

By using a bulletin board, Stella Bocholis and Lee Ann Smith show how geometry is used in other areas of study.

Science Involves

Chemistry experiments prove very interesting to Cynthia Dillon, Becky Wade, Carol Griffith, and Carol Coble.

The field of science has opened many doors for modern man in research and development of new ideas. Ragsdale is proud of its Science department which offers students the chance to discover new facts about the world they live in. Only two units are necessary for graduation but advanced courses are offered for those whose interests tend towards science, biology, advanced biology, chemistry, and physics.

Although one cannot spend the rest of his life dissecting cats or frogs or mixing up chemicals that can be smelled all over the school, one can find many opportunities in science. Among the fields which are open are careers in medicine, nursing, technology, and engineering. The way to prepare for such careers is to start with the microscopes, wild flowers, cats, chemicals, equations, and scales, which are necessary parts of the science courses.

Mary Louise Reynolds, Rick Mitchell, and Carolyn Kates dissect a dog fish in advanced biology.

Biology students learn to use a microscope.

Social Study Students

Terry Creasman points out an important place on the map of ancient Greece to Jane Evans, Jennifer Thorpe, Billy Miller, Sammy Clark, and John Morgan.

Mrs. Charlotte Hallberg

Social studies is one of the most popular departments in our school. Each class furnishes valuable information of the past in relation to the future. This knowledge is valuable not only as informational material but also as a means of interpreting present day problems. Through the classes in civics, world history, United States history, economics and sociology, geography, and Democracy in Action, students gain a sound and irreplaceable knowledge of the world and its people, past history as well as current events and problems of today, and guidelines for the future.

Home Ec Prepares Students for Marriage

Family living class is the scene of many interesting discussions, especially when Molly Madison makes her point.

Home economics teaches girls many ways by which they can make their everyday life more meaningful. It also prepares them for the lives they will lead as mothers and homemakers.

During the year, the girls gain knowledge in cooking, good grooming, and furniture selection and arrangement.

The girls are required to eat what they cook and to wear what they sew. This requirement often makes the girls strive to do better work.

Family living is an especially popular course offered to seniors. In it the students discuss problems arising within the family, those they face as teenagers, and those they may face as adults. They gain much knowledge which will be helpful to them upon their graduation from high school.

Mrs. Agnes Farthing

Miss Wanda Davis

The sewing machines really hum when guided by Glenda Kay, Susan Gregory, Pat Crouch, and Linda Crouch.

Art Encourages Creative Ability

By taking the art courses offered here at Ragsdale, students are taught basic artistic skills and art appreciation. Under the instruction of Miss Cynthia Davis, they are taught drawing in pen and ink and pencil, painting in watercolors, block-print, carving in wax and plaster, sculpturing, and other skills.

The art classes are always willing to make decorations, bulletin boards, posters, or do other artwork which is needed around the school.

The making of homecoming decorations keep Wayne Shepherd, Talton Leonard, Don Turner, Steve Routh, and Tance Laughridge busy in art class.

Miss Cynthia Davis

Commercial Courses Prepare Students

In bookkeeping class, students gain much practical experience.

Nimble-fingered typists, methodical business math students, beginning bookkeepers, and puzzled shorthand pupils complete the picture of the commercial departments. There one receives valuable training and experience which will enable them to qualify for secretarial positions upon graduation.

This year in addition to the regular commercial subjects, a new course has been added--personal typing and notehand. This course is designed primarily to give college-bound students sufficient knowledge to type themes and research papers and to take notes when in college.

Under the leadership of Mr. Paul Rainey, the Ragsdale band has given some excellent performances this year. Led by the prancing majorettes and the drum major, the band has participated in half-time shows at the football games and in Christmas parades.

The full band furnished the music for all the Homecoming festivities and collaborated with the glee club to furnish the music for the Christmas program. In addition, members of the pep band played at basketball games.

The band participated in the Spring band contest at U.N.C.-G and went to Chapel Hill for Carolina Band Day.

Ragsdale's chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Vivian Davis, is divided into two groups this year. In Chorus I are the persons who are taking Choral Music for the first time. In Chorus II are the persons who are more experienced, having taken Choral Music before.

Although the choruses have no set agenda, this year their program plans include the annual Christmas program, the Guilford County Choral Clinic in February, the District Choral Contest in March, and the State Choral Festival in April. The choruses will also be singing for assembly programs and may be asked to sing for service clubs as in the past.

A very suitable phrase used in describing the atmosphere surrounding the Choral Music room is "There's a song in the air"!

Chorus II

P.E. Emphasizes Good Sportsmanship

The physical education department is centered around the full participation of a student's mind and body in organized games and study to the extent of complete mental and physical fitness. Included in this program are the study of the body, first aid, health habits, a knowledge of various games, calisthenics, gymnastics, and physical fitness tests. Sportsmanship is also emphasized along with desirable personality traits and character qualities.

Girls as well as boys actively participate in physical education classes.

Advanced physical education classes are popular with both boys and girls.

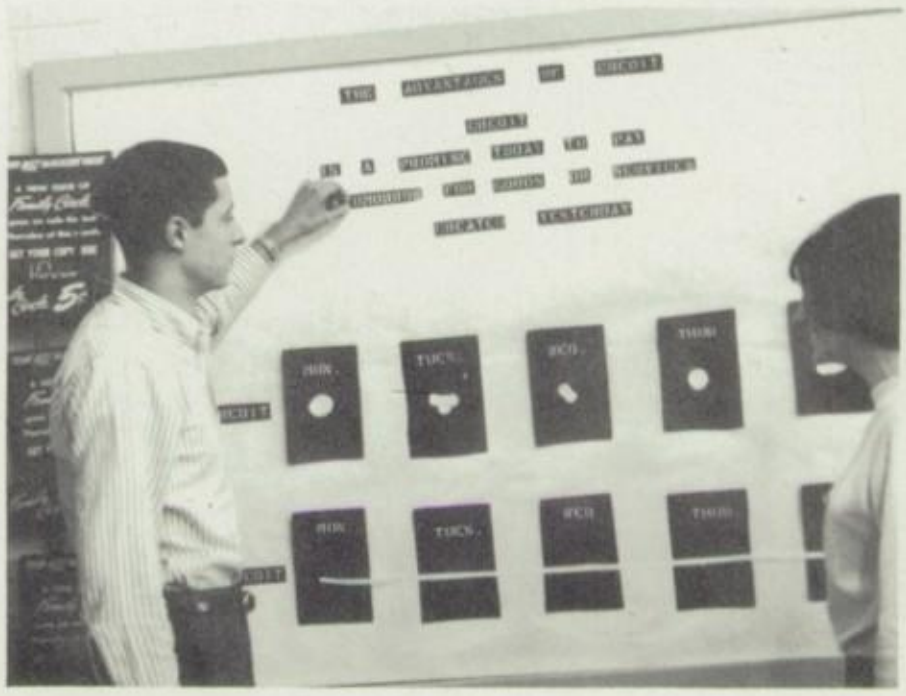
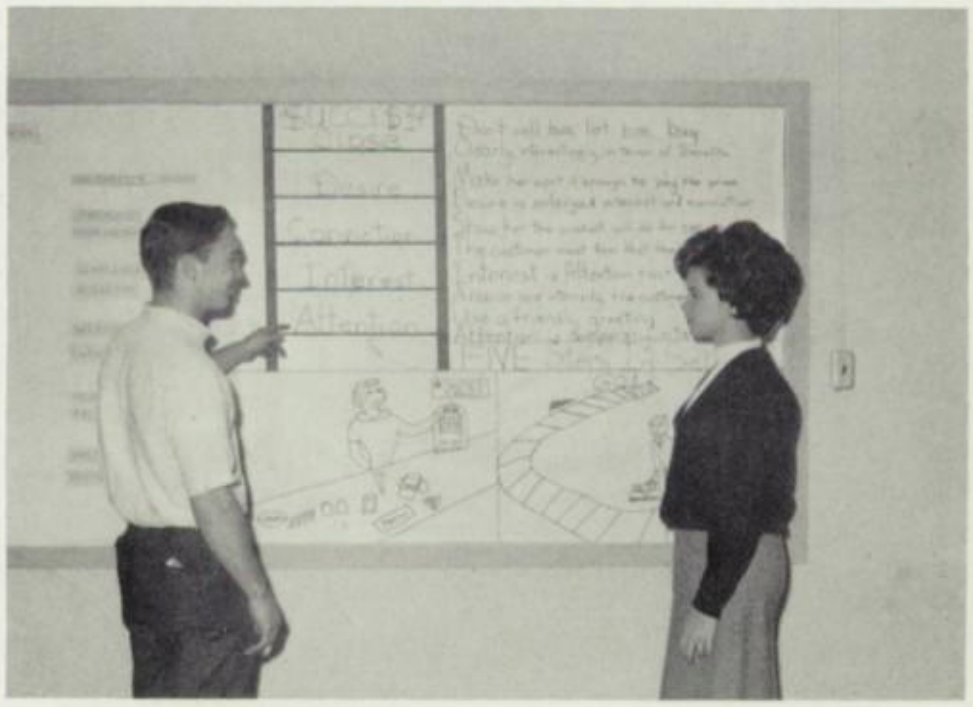
D.E. Interests Many Students

Distributive Education, part of the vocational training program of the school, combines classroom instruction with on-the-job training in a selling occupation. It is intended to develop skilled workers in the field of distribution. The functions of distributive education are (1) to train students in a distributive field, (2) to give better service to customers, (3) to give employees greater satisfaction, (4) to reduce business losses because of inefficient employees, and (5) to promote public notations.

The second year students attend school half a day and then go to work in area stores.



Benny Thacker and Linda Price work on D.E. Bulletin board.



In D.E. David Nunn and Sherry McDaniels learn valuable selling practices.

Mr. Harden talks to his D.E. II class about working procedures.

Mr. Homer Harden

Special Courses

Ronnie Hiatt, Phill Scott, Rod Edwards, Talton Leonard, and Scott Gardener are busy working on lamps that they are making for Christmas.

Practical Arts

Practical arts is a course which enables students to understand the man made world; use basic materials for useful purposes; develop basic tool (and machine) skills; and understand the nature of work in occupations and careers related to industry. Activities include drawing and planning, wood work, metal work, ceramics, electricity-electronics, graphic arts and power mechanics.

Mr. John Holbrook

Special Education

Ragsdale has a new department this year, the special education department. This program is designed for students who are in need of special services. The instructor is Mr. Micheal Raybon.

Driver's Training

Although no credit is given for driver training, it is required if a student wishes to obtain a driver's license. Students receive a minimum of thirty hours classroom training and six hours behind the wheel training. The aim of this course is to prepare competent, skillful, and responsible young drivers.

Coach Larry Klosterman explains parking procedures to driver training students.

Guidance Services

Everyone agrees that the nicest people here at Ragsdale are Mrs. Mary Lane and Miss Lynne Harrell, our guidance counselors. They help students to make intelligent decisions for meeting their educational, vocational, and personal needs. The counselors seek to understand each student's personality, needs, and problems.

As the years roll by, the students at Ragsdale High School will return to these pages and reflect upon their many high school acquaintances. Flipping idly through the classes, one will relive the happy, carefree high school days. One recalls the mass confusion of freshmen madly dashing from class to class, the odor of the back hall as the sophomores proudly profess their knowledge of the entrails of a cat, the juniors grandly displaying their class rings, symbols of achievement, while the seniors reach the climax of twelve years of accomplishment in the triumph of graduation.

The new walkway in our center court provides a speedy short cut to reach far away classrooms.

Senior class officers - Bruce Martin, secretary; Pete McBride, president; Jimmy Modlin, vice president; Larry Stevens, treasurer.

Yes, the long road to Seniordom has been a hard one to travel, but every mile has proved its worth. When they entered these halls of Ragsdale High School as freshmen that four-year lifetime ago, they thought that they would never become members of that great society, the Senior Class. Yet, here they are today, Seniors at last!

There have been so many events to be remembered this year in high school - so many responsibilities, so many decisions, so many joys, and so many tears. What Senior could ever forget the Senior play, the Senior Prom, those college applications, that unforgettable Homecoming, the fall festival, or a thousand other things so deeply engraved in their minds!

It's hard for Seniors to believe that one of the most exciting eras of their lives is quickly drawing to a close. Soon each of them will take a separate road in life. They are faced with reality and will assume it with vigor. Yet, they will never forget those strong bonds unspoken formed at Ragsdale High.

Class of '68

Sophomore sponsors--Miss Kimmel, Miss Modlin, Mr. Hinkle, Miss W. Davis, Mrs. Marlowe, Mrs. Vuncannon, Miss C. Davis, Mrs. O'Berry, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Donaldson.

Although they are not yet upperclassmen, the sophomores are thoroughly familiar with the halls of Ragsdale. Driver's training, the dissection of cats and frogs, sophomore tests, and increased homework will be remembered as a part of their busy year. High school life is no longer a mystery to them, but they are looking forward to next year when they will be upperclassmen.

Freshman sponsors--Mr. Raybon, Mrs. Johnson, Miss Flynn, Mrs. Revels, Mr. Holbrook, Mrs. Hornaday, Mrs. Payne, Mrs. Washington, Miss Watkins.

Wide-eyed and highly excited, the freshmen began their year at Ragsdale and experienced their first taste of real high school life.

They gained new knowledge and had many new and different experiences such as going the wrong way in the halls, changing classes, getting into the wrong class and being called "Punk Freshmen."

They look forward to next year even though they again will be the youngest students at Ragsdale.

Various Activities Reflect Our Year

Ragsdale students anxiously await for the Tigers to make the extra points.

Pep rallies boost school spirit.

School life at Ragsdale is enriched by many extra-curricular activities. Their variety reveals the diversity of interests that mark the student body. Fun night, school dances, and a multitude of organizations stimulate school spirit, help to develop character, and tend to draw out the latent capacities - social, physical, intellectual, moral, and spiritual - that lie within each individual. Student activities proved pleasant opportunities for learning outside the classroom.

Student Council plans projects that benefit the school.

"Reflections of Ragsdale"

Sherry Moore
Co-editor

Sharon Schwalbe
Co-editor

The theme "Reflections of Ragsdale" was selected by Sherry Moore and Sharon Schwalbe, editors, with the hope that the 1966 ECHO would truly bring back many pleasant memories to its readers, both now and for many years to come.

The staff, under the able direction of its editors, has attempted to make several innovations in this year's ECHO. Each member has worked diligently to meet deadlines, many working long hours after school identifying pictures, writing copy, typing, and performing the numerous other jobs necessary in the publication of an annual.

The business staff headed by Ann Trexler has been busy processing the ads secured by the staff members and looking after the financial side of the publication.

Hi-Lights Keeps Ragsdale

Sheri DeLong
Co-editor

Cynthia Edwards
Co-editor

The Hi-Lights, a monthly journalistic publication, provides the students and faculty with the latest happenings at Ragsdale High School.

The journalism class, which is the newspaper staff, is composed of students from the junior and senior classes. Each student is required to write articles in the areas of sports, news, features, and editorials for every issue of the paper. They also arrange pictures, cartoons, jokes and complete the make-up of the paper by placing the articles and advertising into what is called layout.

Every staff member sold advertising during the summer to uphold the financial end of the paper.

The Hi-Lights was awarded an Honor rating at the Southern Intercollegiate Press Association. It also held membership in the Quill and Scroll.

The three major responsibilities assumed by the student council of 1965-66 have been:

1. Co-ordination of homecoming activities
2. Presentation of school assemblies
3. Beautification of the courtyard

Working with the cheerleaders, the art department, and other school organizations, the student council had charge of co-ordination of the 1965-66 homecoming program which included presenting the homecoming court in assembly, the parade, the half-time program at the game, the reception for alumni, and the sock hop.

Another responsibility the council has undertaken has been school assemblies. Under the supervision of the vice president, an effort has been made to vary these programs by using both school groups and outside speakers.

This year's council has also continued work on the courtyard which the 1964-65 council began. Cement walks were laid at the beginning of the year. The soil has also been prepared for planting at the proper time.

In addition to various school activities, the student council strives constantly to encourage and promote good citizenship and scholarship and serve our school in every way possible.

School in Various Activities

The responsibility for the success of the student council is with its officers--Kathy Scearce, secretary; Benny Blackwood, president; Ann Wyrick, Vice-president; and Eddie Stafford, treasurer.

Hard labor doesn't seem to bother Benny Blakewood, Barry Sharrock, Drennen Davis, and Steve Groome as they work on beautifying the courtyard.

The Interclub council made up of the presidents of the school clubs coordinate their activities.

In its second year at Ragsdale, the Fortuna Chapter of the National Honor Society has been active in the affairs of the school and community. The club gave their services at College Night and served as guides, hosts, and hostesses to the various representatives of the educational institutions. The N.H.S. sent letters to Viet Nam and helped High Point College collect paperback books to send to the men in Viet Nam.

In February, twenty new members were inducted into the society in a candle-light ceremony.

New members pledge to uphold the standards of the National Honor Society.

The Beta Club is an honor club composed of Juniors and Seniors who have maintained a high scholastic average throughout high school. One of the responsibilities of Ragsdale's Beta Club is to run the Beta Shop.

Each new member, as well as old, anxiously awaits the coming of the annual convention. The convention is a combination of meetings, dances, banquets, elections, and fun.

Quill and Scroll Inducts New Members

The Quill and Scroll chapter of Ragsdale High School was formed in 1964. The membership of the club is very selective and consists of members from the annual and newspaper staffs. The club exists primarily to reward students for meritorious work in the literary field. It is an honorary society for high school journalists.

Members of Quill and Scroll must be of junior or senior classification, they must be in the upper third of their class in scholastic standing, they must have done superior work in journalism or school publications work, they must be approved by the secretary-treasurer of the Society, and they must be recommended by the supervisor.

Mu Alph Theta added many new members and a new sponsor, Mr. James A. Kenan, this year. There are about fifty members on role. Each month programs related to math are held; and sometimes the business session consists of plans for a homecoming float, a trip to see the computer at State or Carolina, plans for an assembly program, or the possibility of a state convention.

Math Club members prepare to leave to see computer at UNC-Ch.

The Latin Club of Ragsdale High School is an affiliate of the Junior Classical League. It is sponsored by the American Classical League to promote interest in the ancient Greek and Roman language, literature, and customs.

Activities include initiation of new members, attendance at the annual state convention held on a college campus, where there is an exchange of ideas, participation in workshops, and contests; and, a Roman Banquet held in the spring, where all members are required to come dressed in ancient Greek and Roman apparel.

The membership of the Ragsdale Library Club is small in comparison to many other clubs, but there is no other club in school which is more active nor accomplishes more on a daily basis. Each member is scheduled to work in the library from two to five hours each week. For the past year the members have been mostly seniors and juniors. They have strived to achieve the goal of the club which is to render good library service to the student body and the faculty of our school.

In order to accomplish this, these members, all of whom must maintain above average grades as one requirement of club membership, have been involved in many and varied duties and projects. These include assisting at the charging desk, aiding in the technical processing of new books and other materials, the typing and filing of reader's cards as well as catalog cards, arranging displays and bulletin boards, and working with current and back files of periodicals.

New members of the club are kept busily occupied with shelving books, keeping the library neat and attractive, pasting pockets in new books, assisting with simple mending and many other work room duties. Students may apply for membership the sophomore year and must pass a test on the use of the library before being accepted.

The Ragsdale Club is associated with the North Carolina High School Association. It always sends delegates to the district meetings and usually to the state convention when possible. Other highlights of the year for this club are the social activities, which include a Christmas social, an annual dinner meeting in May in honor of seniors, and the annual visit of those seniors to some outstanding college or public library in the spring field trip.

Interest in Books

Marty Pinnix and Ann Lee Gray do clerical work in the library.

Sandra Fraley and Janet McMahan stamp return date on library books.

The National Forensic League here at Ragsdale is composed of a total of twenty Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors. During the school year, these students enjoy participating in interscholastic speaking contests with schools from West Virginia, Virginia, and South Carolina, as well as from North Carolina. In the spring of each year, the club attends the North Carolina Speech Festival held at Wake Forest College in Winston-Salem. Here, the students can compete with other students of their approximate age in debate, original oratory, oral interpretation, extemporaneous speaking, after dinner speaking, and radio announcing. In this way, each hopes to gain the title of Top Speaker in North Carolina.

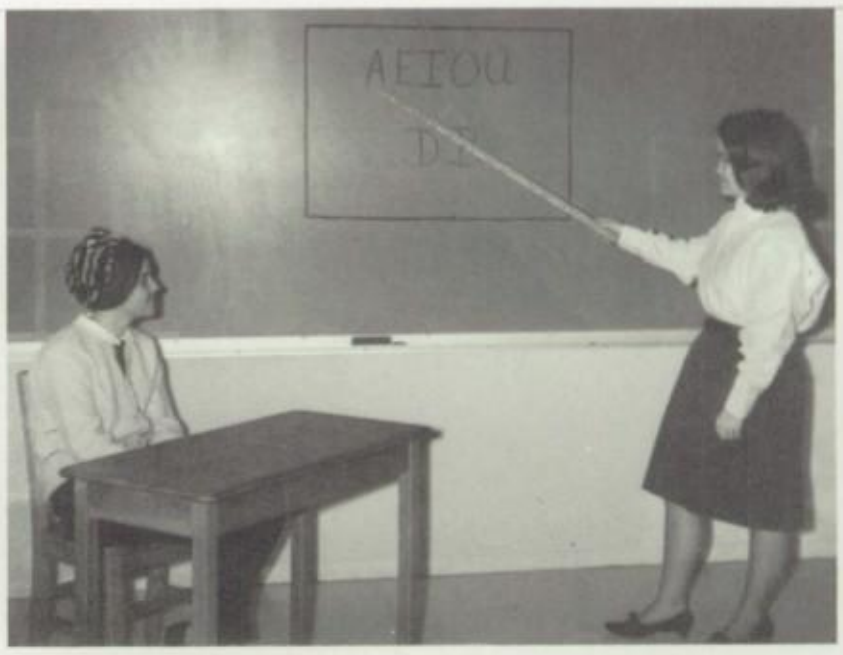
This year the debating club has participated in debating tournaments at East Forsyth and High Point High School, and East Carolina and Davidson College. A Round Robin tournament was held in March with Ragsdale as host. Many local high schools took part in this. A big event was the speech festival at Wake Forest College. The national debate topic for this year was: Resolved: That compulsory arbitration should be used in labor management disputes in basic industries.

Le Cercle Francais Has Christmas Party

Members of French Club enjoy buche de Noel made by Miss Brown.



French play given by French III students.

Le Cercle Francais is under the leadership of Miss Estelle Brown and Mr. Wilson. All meetings are conducted in French and are held every third Wednesday of the month from 3:00 to 4:00.

This year the French Club enjoyed a program on the famous Moliere, a special Christmas program when they were served the traditional French pastry, films of France, and a French exchange student, Jean - Rieire, as a guest speaker.

French Club initiation was a high light of the school year. After mid-term, all students taking French maintaining a "B" average were initiated into Le Cercle Francais.

The Future Business Leaders of America strives to train young people to enter the business world. FBLA activities for the year have evolved from monthly meetings related to business ideals. Highlights of the year have been a Christmas bake sale and the 12th Annual FBLA Convention in Durham, April 1-2. Proceeds of the bake sale were used to purchase a record player and records for the Business Department.

Ragsdale FBLA has been acclaimed nationally as a Gold Seal Chapter for the 1965-1966 school year.

Row 4- Miller, Misenhiemer, Lober, Putman, McBride, Waller, Ward, McCannon, Warren.

The Future Teachers of America Club has inducted many new members this past year. Included among the aspiring teachers for the first time in quite a while are boys.

In October, several members and the advisor, Mrs. O'Berry, traveled to Wake Forest to attend the F.T.A. state convention.

The club's largest project for the year was building the float they entered in the Homecoming Parage. Trips were taken to visit Woman's College and also to visit the rooms of elementary school teachers. Speakers throughout the year included high school and elementary school teachers and student teachers. College professors also spoke on the advantages and disadvantages of teaching in college.

After its success last year, the club sponsored another Teacher Appreciation week. At the end of the year, as the "Echos" were distributed, the club again sold protective covers.

The Ragsdale FHA Chapter is affiliated with the state and national organization. The motto for the FHA organization is "Toward New Horizons." The FHA activities and programs focus on helping the members to grow and develop.

FHA members at Ragsdale acted as ushers at the District Rally attended by 2400 FHA'ers from districts V and VII. Members of the chapter prepared a float in the homecoming parade. Mothers of the club members were guests at the Christmas Covered Dish Supper.

The local chapter operated under the state FHA program of work.

Row 3- Hennis, Stribling, Floyd, Duke, Branson, Ingold, McBroom, Shawer, Jordan, Bailey, Gallimore, Ferguson, Ellis.

The D. E. Club helps to prepare its members for a career in business and distribution. This year the D. E. Club entered district contests and attended the district convention at Grimsley in November and the State Convention at Raleigh in March. They competed in job interview, public speaking, sales demonstration, advertising, D. E. Sweetheart, and D. E. Student of the Year. Sue Craddock was elected state vice-president and Jerry Stuart was elected district vice president.

Art Club Visits Showing

Art club members attend exhibit at U.N.C.

Marty Pinnix, Pam Marsh, Linda Johnson, Zar Rochelle, and Elene Williard study an oil painting.

Art is a wide field of interest. Through the Art Club students can broaden their understanding of its many aspects.

The Ragsdale Art Club, under the sponsorship of Miss Cynthia Davis, assists in producing bulletin boards, plays, exhibits, decorations, and other projects requiring its assistance. This year's club has made field trips to art exhibits and had the privilege of hearing several speakers at its programs.

Civinettes Support Orphan

One of the few service organizations at Ragsdale is the Junior Civinette Club. Each year the members organize and carry out service projects for the school and community.

This year the Civinettes sponsored a "Slave Day" in and around Jamestown. Girls were available to rake leaves, wash cars, and perform other tasks. The funds which were earned through their efforts went to the support of little Jimmy Wolfe, the Indian orphan the club adopted in 1963.

The Civinettes have offered babysitting services during PTSA meetings at Ragsdale, Millis Roads, and Jamestown Elementary schools. They have participated in drives for retarded children, and sold fruitcakes to finance the expense of supporting Jimmy Wolfe.

Spring usually finds the weary, yet happy, Civinettes making preparations for the annual convention, her reward for contributing loyally to her school and community.

Miss Davis and Miss Modlin watch as members turn in their fruitcake money to Judy McCray.

The new members were inducted at a dinner meeting held at the Mayfair Cafeteria.

Civitans Line Parking Lot

The Civitan Club has held two money raising projects this year. They sold Halloween candy in October and fruit cakes at Christmas. They purchased paint and marked off the school parking lot into individual spaces. Along with the Civinettes they are supporting an Indian orphan in Oklahoma. They assisted the Senior Civitans of Sedgefield in passing out resident stickers for the G. G. O. They have always left a gift to the school and plan to this year. Last year new flags were donated to the auditorium.

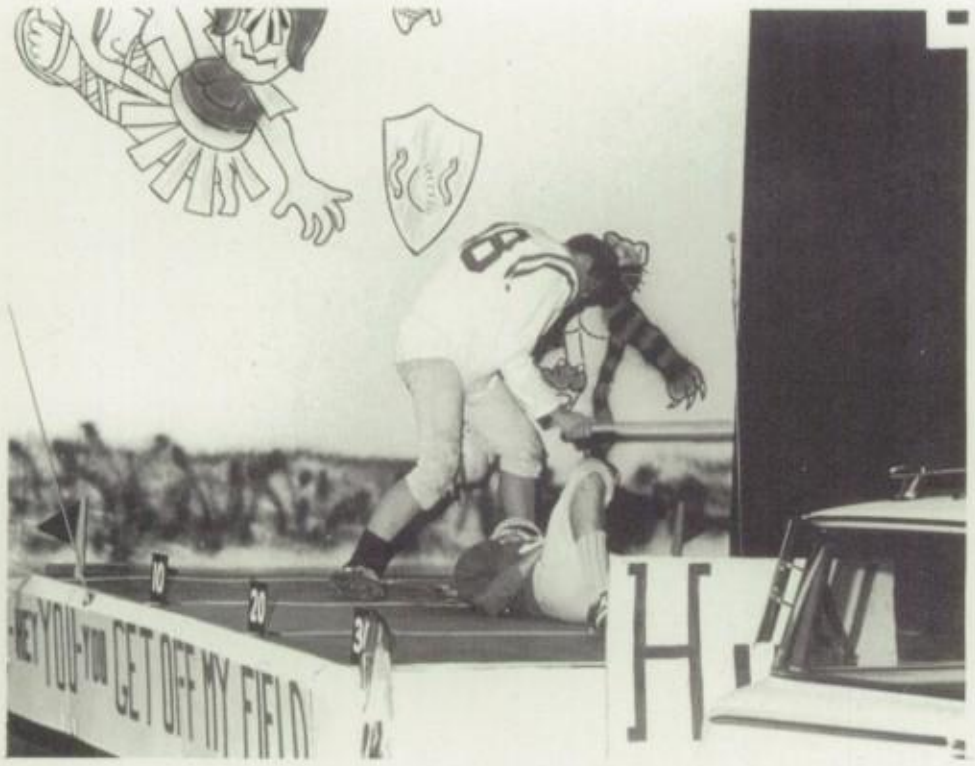
Hi-Y Has Prize Homecoming Float



Hi-Y members worked hard on Homecoming float.

The Hi-Y, primarily a service club, had several interesting programs during the year. One project was to raise twenty-five dollars for their pledge to the World Service Fund. The Club members met at the Y.M.C.A. for special meetings which were followed by recreation including swimming, basketball, and handball. Mr. Harden served as sponsor of the club.

Tri-Hi-Y Does Service for Aged

During the year the Tri-Hi-Y Club was engaged in a variety of activities. Early in the fall, the club had a speaker who talked about the purpose of the Tri-Hi-Y and the many opportunities open to its members because of the affiliation with the Y.M.C.A. One of the service projects the club participated in was to carry fruit baskets to the Old Age Home at Easter. This proved to be very rewarding to the club members. Also, the Tri-Hi-Y met with the Hi-Y for a dinner meeting at the end of the year. With the cooperation of all the members and the sponsorship of Mr. Harden, the Tri-Hi-Y Club had a successful year.

Interact Aids Viet Nam Soldiers

The Interact is a new club at Ragsdale this year. It was organized by the Jamestown Rotary Club which sponsors this service club.

The main project of the Interact Club for this year is to raise money for books in order to help accredit the new junior high school.

An international project undertaken during the year was the sending of letters to the 1st Infantry Division, the Big Red One, in Vietnam.

Money is raised by doing odd jobs such as raking yards, shoveling snow, and washing cars.

Jr. Exchange Promotes Safety

The Junior Exchange Club of Ragsdale High School is a service club sponsored by the Exchange Club of High Point and is affiliated with the N. C. Association of Exchange Clubs and the National Association of Exchange Clubs. It was chartered in the fall of 1965 with Mr. Jack Hinkle as faculty advisor. The charter membership numbers twenty-three, but presently, considerable expansion is planned for 1966-1967. The local club has a unique distinction, being the only one formed as a school outside of 4-A status.

Y-Teens Are Active

Row 1- Landreth, Williams, Simmons, Jones. Row 2- Thomas, Jennings, Chorost, Fraley, Myers. Row 3- Saxion, Swaim, Hodgin, Matthews, Hinson.

The Y-Teens are divided into four separate clubs: The Senior Y-Teens, Junior Y-Teens, Sophomore Y-Teens, and Freshman Y-Teens.

As a whole the Y-Teens have 104 members and four sponsors; Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Harper, Mrs. Taylor, and Mrs. Whitner.

The activities of the clubs are many. During the Christmas holidays, the seniors entertained at the Piedmont Christian Home. The juniors gave a Christmas party for a group of orphans. The sophomores dressed dolls for the Christmas Fund and went caroling at various nursing homes. The freshmen visited a shut-in.

The clubs have sponsored a discotheque at the Y.W.C.A. They entered a float in the Homecoming parade, and are attending interest groups held at the Y.W.C.A.

Campus Life Gives Hootenanny

Campus Life

Campus Life, formerly called Youth For Christ, is an organization open to all students regardless of class, sex, or the ever-pressing grades. There is really no such thing as a member of Campus Life. A role is not called at each meeting. One doesn't have to attend every meeting, but most of the students who come once dislike to miss a meeting. Campus Life presents interesting speakers and provides entertainment in such forms as humorous skits and enjoyable hootennanies. This organization can give Ragsdale students a real meaning in their lives.

Pep and Monogram Clubs Encourage School Spirit

The Monogram Club members are those students who have lettered in football, basketball, wrestling, track, baseball, golf, cheerleading, or band. This club supports good sportsmanship and creates a desire to participate in the school athletic program.

The members of the Pep Club are those students who energetically support all athletic functions and attend all the games, cheering the teams to victory.

Buses Carry 2,000 Pupils

Bus drivers leave for their afternoon trip.

The Bus Drivers' Club is composed of young men and women who have been certified by the state of North Carolina to drive school busses. This certification is given after written and road tests have been administered to determine the ability of the driver to handle a bus.

The club is basically a service organization. The members operate the concession stands for all home ball games and assist in parking cars for special school programs, as well as transporting over 2,000 pupils twice daily between their homes and the three schools of the immediate school district, Millis Road Elementary School, Jamestown Junior High School, and Ragsdale.

Members remain in good standing while they maintain their certification and good conduct.

Ragsdale Suports Its Team

Football attracts much interest in the fall.

The boys' basketball team enjoyed a very successful year.

Much interest was shown in wrestling.

Golf attracts several students as a spring sport.

Ragsdale offers a varied program of sports activities which appeal to many people. As students look back over the year, they are reminded of the outstanding records made by the football and basketball teams. They have thrilled with the golf and wrestling teams as they won their matches and have cheered the baseball and track teams on to victory. All in all Ragsdale has had a very successful year with its athletic program.

The girls' basketball team had a better than average season.

The powder puff football game was a new attraction at Ragsdale.

New Coach Adds

Head coach Gordon surveys the field with coaches Dunn, Payne, and Haney.

Under the leadership of an entirely new coaching staff, Ragsdale represented themselves with a 4-5-1 record.

The spirit and enthusiasm of this year's team reached an unexpected high. This was exhibited by the fact that the Tigers fought from behind in many games. Rated as underdogs throughout the season, Ragsdale played strongly against their adversaries, as indicated by the close margin of points in each game. With a few turns or bounces of the ball, defeat could have been victory. The climax came when Ragsdale led Allen Jay 7-0 for three quarters before the Jaybirds finally pulled it out in the fourth quarter.

Under the superb coaching of Hugh Gordon, Larry Dunn, and Jerry Haney, the team showed much improvement during the season. Sportsmanship was also a key factor to the success of this year's team.

Victories over East Davidson, Gibsonville, Northwest, and Southeast highlighted the season.

Martin drops back to pass.

Tri-captains Martin, Byrd, Putman, provided outstanding leadership during the season.

Harper and Butler scowl as they prepare to meet opposition.

Halfbacks Wyrick, Lassiter, Taro, and Smith listen attentively to Coach Gordon's advice.

Stevens, Thornton, Stafford, and Riley practice pass catching.

Cheerleaders Keep Spirits High

During the 1965-66 season, the school spirit was greater than ever before as the cheerleaders cheered the Tigers through both defeat and victory. Keeping in mind their purpose of promoting good sportsmanship and school spirit, the cheerleaders met regularly to plan their activities and find new ways to fulfill their purpose. Even before school began, the girls were hard at work practicing cheers. At homecoming they planned a bonfire to help boost spirit. Through the efforts of these girls, our school spirit reached a new high this year.

Team Challenges

Row 1- Jones, Blakewood, McBride, Modlin, Taro, Wyrick. Row 2- Whicker, Lassiter, McCarter, Aydelette, Catlin, Osborne, Glover.

Ragsdale's Flying Tigers, under the superb leadership of Coach Donnie Hunt, experienced one of their most successful seasons ever. Led by Captains Jimmy Modlin and Pete McBride, the Tigers played good basketball and displayed true sportsmanship.

The Tigers won ten straight before falling to arch-rival Allen Jay by the margin of one point. Ragsdale later lost to Northwest by three points before continuing their winning streak again.

Overall, the Tigers have an outstanding record for the season, one of which everyone is proud.

The Ragsdale girls' basketball team has shown much improvement. With lots of experience the Tigerettes expect to have a very successful season.

Lacking height the girls make up for it with much hustle and determination to win.

All the girls on the team would like to thank the student body for their good support and spirit this year.

The success of Ragsdale's wrestling team was measured in progress rather than in the won-lost column. In their first year of competition, the wrestlers faced such outstanding teams as Albemarle, Madison-Mayodan, and former state champions, Thomasville High School.

After losing nine matches, the team won two matches over Guilford High School, and went on to beat 3-A power, Mount Airy High School, 38-24.

Leading the team's performance were Co-captain Steve Byrd, and two outstanding freshmen, Jimmy Allen and undefeated David Korstad.

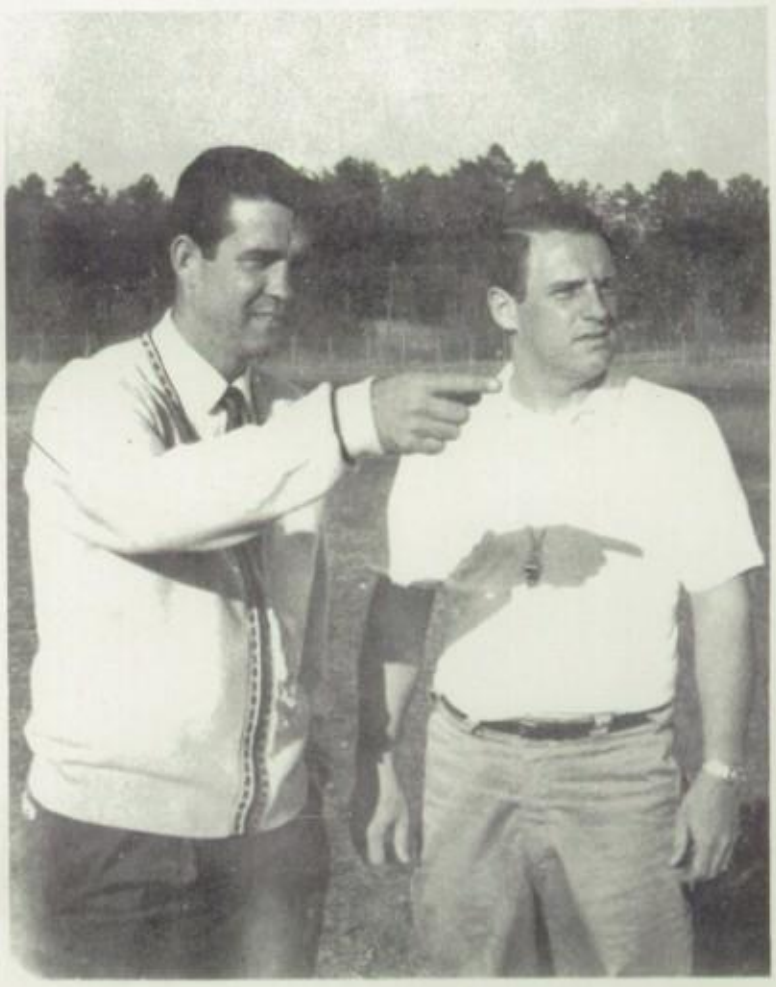
The Ragsdale Flying Tigers completed another successful baseball season in 1965. Despite a 7-7 record in conference play and a 9-8 overall record, many exciting games were viewed by Ragsdale fans. Led by the consistent hitting of Ronald Cox and the leadership of Mark Bullock and Steve Carter, who both made all-conference, the team of '65 battled many opponents right down to the nail. Although Ragsdale did not bring home the conference championship, their sportsmanship and conduct did bring honor to the school.



Coaches Hinkle and Dunn plan their strategy.

Varsity Track Team

Last year the track team drew much attention, and the enthusiasm ran high among all those who attended the meets. The boys on the team participated well and their effort led them to four first place and two second place wins. The team was very proud of Wally Taylor who won the Northeast Invitation Decathlon.

Thanks to the excellent coaching of Mr. Haney and Mr. Klosterman, the track team had an excellent season.

Coaches Haney and Klosterman survey the track.

a Good Year

Led by Ronnie Wyrick and Sammy Napier, the distance runners work hard to get in shape.

Steve Clendenin, Larry Edwards, David McCray, and Wally Taylor practice hurdling for a meet.

Bobby Bolton pole vaults while Wally Taylor, Donald Turner, Steve Clendenin, Dewey Smith, and David McCray look on.

Ken Brown practices shot-put for an appreciative audience of Larry Edwards, Steve Clendenin, Johnny Newsom, Randy Rogers, and Donald Turner.

All That Practice Paid Off

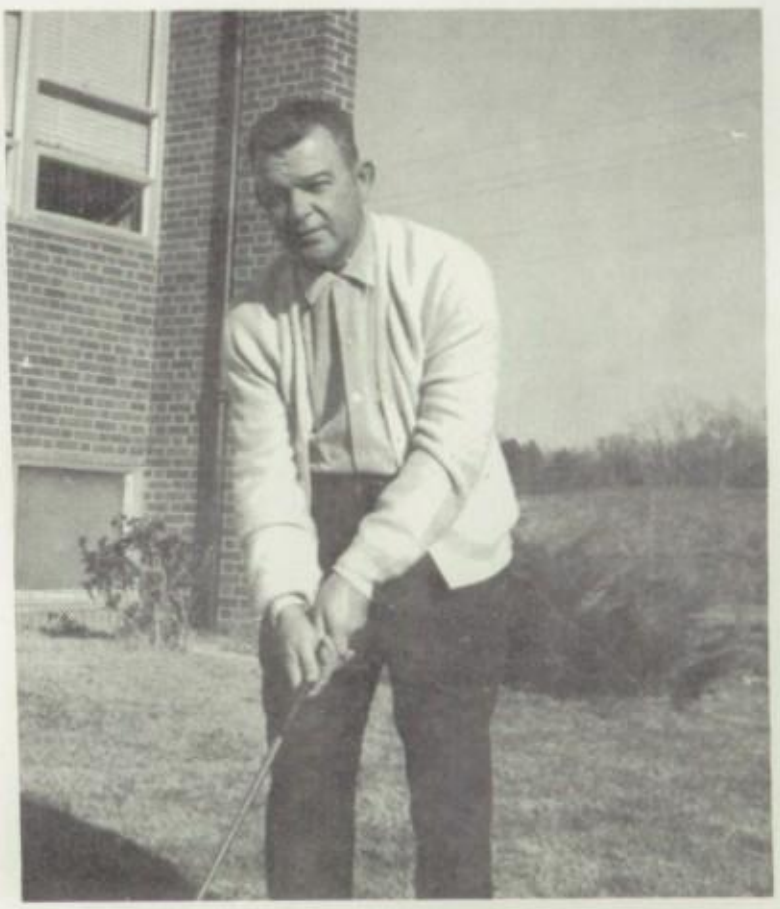
Last year Ragsdale had a championship golf team. It won the conference play with an unblemished record of wins. The team also won the Guilford County tournament, both team and individual titles. The individual winner was Richard Hartmann, who is on the team again this season. The members of the team are looking forward to repeating last years record. They will meet each of the conference teams two times - once on their home course and once on ours. Teams in the conference include Northeast, Northwest, Southeast, Sumner, Guilford, and, of course, Ragsdale.



Coach Rainey demonstrates the proper grip.

Patronize Our Advertisers

These Reflections of Ragsdale would not have been possible without the generosity of the businessmen of Jamestown, High Point, and Greensboro. Through their advertising, they have contributed much to the success of the 1966 Echo. The entire annual staff, as well as the student body wishes to express its appreciation for their interest.

Compliments of

MADDEN BROTHER'S TEXACO

The grateful thanks and warm appreciation of the entire annual staff go out to our sponsor, Mrs. Mary Lane. Without her, this, the 1966 ECHO would not have been possible.
